

A person with blonde hair, seen from the back, stands in a vast field of tall, golden-brown grass. They are wearing a light blue long-sleeved shirt and brown pants. On their back is a large, vintage-style scuba tank with two red cylinders and silver metal components. The person is looking out over the field towards a clear blue sky with scattered white clouds.

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is shown in profile, looking intently at a table covered with numerous small, lit candles. The scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the warm, yellow glow of the candles. In the background, out of focus, are blue bokeh lights, possibly from a city or a festive display. The woman is wearing a dark jacket and a watch on her left wrist. The overall mood is contemplative and mysterious.
